

Best Practices in Juvenile Justice Transition in WA State

Kathleen Sande

Washington State Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction

Washington State Detention Centers and Juvenile Prisons

2007-08	2008-09	2009-11 Reg & ARRA
Transition Services for Youth Exiting Facilities and 30 Days Post-Release 3 Education Advocates Statewide No additional Services Provided	Expanded Transition Services to Create a Continuum for Youth 16 Education Advocates Statewide in the Communities Professional Development Special Projects with Community Partners	Future Expansion Possibilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Expand Education Advocates ▶ Create Transition School Pilots ▶ Establish Statewide Program Evaluation Model ▶ Additional Professional Development ▶ Wrap Around Services

Creating a Continuum of Services with Education Advocates in Washington

2007-08 Education Advocate Project	(Long-Term facilities)
CHALLENGES	SUCSESSES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Funding • Statewide Releases • Limited Services • Advocates/Silos • Leadership/Training 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Piloted 3 Advocates • Served Highest-Risk • Advocates As Mentors • Added Leader/Trainer

2008-09 Education Advocate Project	(Short-Term facilities)
CHALLENGES	SUCSESSES
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lack of Transition Services • Structure and Cohesion Framework • Locating Prevention Grantee • Leadership for Advocates • Cross-system Collaboration • Monitoring and Evaluation Tool • Family Involvement 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Needs of Youth Priority • Built Upon Existing Education Advocate Model • Selected Statewide Prevention/Intervention Providers • Expanded Prevention Positions to Include Advocate Work • Leadership From Prevention/Intervention • Added Requirements for Cross-System Collaboration • Facilitate Collaborative Efforts • Expanded Development/Training

Additional Information Contact:

Kathleen Sande

Office of Superintendent of Public
Instruction

Intuitional Education Program Supervisor

PO Box 47200

Olympia, WA 98504-47200

360-725-6046

Email: Kathleen.Sande@k12.wa.us

